And here's the link – I'm taking off leadership and adding two of our technical folks for ECN issues: (b)(6)

So, I've made it through FAQ 41 so far. As I got into it, I noticed that there have been some policy choices made. For now, let's go forth presuming these choices have been vetted above us. I'm going to flag them though as we go forward.

Given that many FAQs have been deleted, lets everyone hammer away at them all until noon and then let's touch base and see where we are? Any better suggestions are always welcome.

Thanks team.
